

First Annual Multiple Sclerosis School

Dr. Salvatore Napoli,
Director of the Multiple Sclerosis Center at Caritas Norwood and Caritas Foxboro, invites you to a FREE series of lectures that address important issues
for those living with MS.

Topics:

September 10, 2008:

What is Multiple Sclerosis?

Lecturer: Salvatore Napoli, MD, Director MS Center
at Caritas Norwood and Caritas Foxboro

October 8, 2008:

The Hidden and Outward Symptoms of Multiple Sclerosis: Symptoms and Symptom Management

Lecturer: Pam Mills, BSN, RN, MSCN

November 12, 2008:

Why, When and How Often do I need an MRI?

Lecturers: Nick Semine, MD, Radiologist
and Salvatore Napoli, MD

December 10, 2008:

MS and Cognition: Why Can't I Multi-task and Remember Things Like I Used To?

Lecturers: Alan Gordon, EdD, Psychologist
and Salvatore Napoli, MD

Where: Abraham/Sieracki Conference Room • Caritas Norwood Hospital
800 Washington Street • Norwood, MA 02062

When: 2nd Wednesday, each month, September—December

Time: Registration—6:30 PM to 7:00 PM • Lecture and Q & A—7:00 PM to 8:30 PM

*Space is limited. Please call Cynthia Margeson to reserve your spot: 781.551.5812

Light Refreshments will be Served • Brought to you by the MS Center at Caritas Norwood and Caritas Foxboro